

Lesson #17 : Every job in the Army is an important job, but they are not all career enhancing

The burning of human waste, mixed with diesel, ensures a level of sanitation so that our Troops can take the fight to the enemy instead of staying in the “inside the wire” with the “GI Shits”. This is a critical task which yields no medals and few “thanks”.